

INSS

Spirituality, Mental Health and Wellbeing Special Interest Group

INSS SIG second online meeting:

Spirituality, Mental Health and Wellbeing SIG:

Welcome, introductions and explorations

With Katja Milner and Jill Buckeldee

Monday 24th October 2022: 13.00pm—14.15pm

Welcoming all interested INSS members to this new SIG focussing upon spirituality, mental health and wellbeing across diverse contexts, including in relation to study, research and practice.

Our second session will continue from the last session with getting to know each other and gauging interest and ideas from the group in relation to exploring future directions. The group emphasises co-creating a safe yet focussed space to explore these important topics and providing opportunities for sharing skills and expertise, collaborating, and considering key priorities for the future progression of the SIG.
